

PURPOSE

The Gavalas-Kolanko Foundation (GKF) is a public charity established to help students with physical disabilities reach their postsecondary educational goals. The GKF awards scholarships to students with physical impairments (sight, hearing, movement) at the College of Charleston.

FIRST-TIME APPLICANTS

To qualify for the scholarship, first-time applicants must complete this form, in detail, with all supporting documents indicated below and upload it to the Cougar Scholarship Awarding System \(CSAS\) no later than July 22, 2022. The scholarship is renewable for up to four years, subject to the applicant's request for renewal, the applicant's continued suitability for the scholarship, and available funding of the GKF.

RENEWAL APPLICATIONS

The GKF scholarship is not automatically renewed. Although this form does not need to be re-submitted, previous C of C recipients who wish to renew the scholarship must login to their Cougar Scholarship Awarding System \(CSAS\) account (all GKF recipients from 2021-2022 have accounts in CSAS) and complete a general application. Previous CofC recipients must also submit an updated list of extra-curricular/community service activities. Latest transcripts from Banner will automatically upload when the CSAS general application is completed/submitted.

SELECTION PROCESS

The GK Foundation Board will review all new and renewal applications and then award 2022-2023 scholarships, based on applicant suitability and current GFK funding resources. If selected, award recipients will receive notification during the Fall semester of the current academic year. The scholarship award will be applied to your Spring semester financial aid awards.

SELECTED APPLICANTS

Scholarship recipients should be prepared to serve as an ambassador/spokesperson of the Foundation and participate in GKF-related social and civic functions throughout the scholarship year.
